Pentecost

Today we feel the wind beneath our wings
 Today the hidden fountain flows and plays
 Today the church draws breath at last and sings
 As every flame becomes a Tongue of praise.
 This is the feast of fire, air, and water
 Poured out and breathed and kindled into earth.
 The earth herself awakens to her maker
 And is translated out of death to birth.
 The right words come today in their right order
 And every word spells freedom and release
 Today the gospel crosses every border
 All tongues are loosened by the Prince of Peace
 Today the lost are found in His translation.
 Whose mother-tongue is Love, in every nation.

COMMUNITY PICNIC JUNE 11TH

Please mark you calendar and plan to join the community for the annual picnic at the Jacksonville Park. The picnic starts right after church at 11:30. Bring your dish to pass and silverware. This enjoyable event is sponsored by JCUMC, the Jacksonville Community Association and the Montessori school. A request has been submitted for a beautiful day.

Someone once said it is “the best smorgasbord in the area.”

CAMPING FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

We at Jacksonville Community United Methodist Church support our youth and children in attending summer camp through the Upper New York Conference Camps. This includes Casowasco, the camp most frequently attended. We currently offer two possibilities for financial assistance.

--The Alec C. Proskine Fund, will reimburse each camper $200.00 regardless of how many weeks the camper attends camp each summer. These funds are available to attend any camp in the Upper New York Conference. The expectation is that families will pay the cost of camp initially. After camp, each child must write a hand written thank you note to Mr. Proskine. Thank you notes are collected and mailed, with a cover letter, to Mr. Proskine by the church camping coordinator (currently Amy Moe). A check is then mailed to the church, deposited, and the appropriate funds distributed to the family after the camp experience. The camping coordinator will keep a list of camp attendees, parent names and addresses, and when received, a copy of the thank you notes.

--In addition, Jacksonville Church may be able to help with camping costs. Families will need to let the camping coordinator know of planned camp attendance. The mission committee will decide whether funds are available and determine the amount to be given. Priority will be given to children and youth who have been actively involved with our church during the previous year. Children and youth who attend camp with Proskine fund and Jacksonville Church support will be expected to share a bit about camp experiences with the congregation in the fall.

FAMILY READING PARTNERSHIP BOOK COLLECTION

As a year-end project, Christian Education and the Mission committee are collecting gently used youth and children's books for the area's Bright Red Bookshelves. You will find boxes upstairs and down until June 18, the last day of Sunday school. Please help support summer reading for all children. If you would like to donate, but don't have children's books at home, please visit the Attic (from June 3 on) where all books are 5/$1.00.

The United Methodist Women traveled to the Martha Van Rensselaer Hall by Gadabout on June 1st to enjoy a collection of wedding dresses then on to the Spring Buffet for their annual mystery trip. This event was attended by ten ladies who enjoyed sharing wedding stories and indulging in an abundance of tasty treats.

The next U.M.W. meeting is scheduled for September 7th at 10:30 am.
